

Compliance Webinar

Employer ERISA Fiduciary Duties In the New Era of Transparency

ERISA fiduciary duties are an often-overlooked benefit plan compliance obligation for private sector employers.

Join us as we review these concepts and evaluate the impact of the new transparency rules on this important compliance obligation.

Can't make this date? Register anyway and you'll receive the recorded version following the event.

Topics Covered

- Review of key ERISA concepts and players
- Exclusive benefit rule
- Duty of prudence
- Duty to follow terms of the plan
- Impact of new transparency requirements
- Best practices

Tuesday March 1, 2022

11 a.m. Pacific
2 p.m. Eastern

Save your seat now by contacting your Alliant representative.

Presenters

Kristine Blanco, J.D. Director of Compliance

Kristine Blanco is an attorney and Director of Compliance for Alliant Insurance Services Employee Benefits Practice. She is a graduate of the University of Arizona,

College of Law and has been working in employment law and employer health and welfare plan compliance since 2006. She is a frequent speaker on a range of employment law and employee benefits topics, most recently focused on COVID-19 issues impacting employers.

Karen Murray, J.D. Compliance Consultant

Karen has over 20 years of legal experience, most recently in the area of benefits compliance. She joined Alliant in 2010 as part of the Compliance Department and advises Alliant clients on a range of benefits-related regulatory issues. Karen holds a BA degree from the University of Washington and a law degree from Seattle University.

The use of this seal is not an endorsement by the HR Certification Institute of the quality of the program. It means that this program has met the HR Certification Institute's criteria to be pre-approved for recertification credit.

Alliant Insurance Services is recognized by SHRM to offer Professional Development Credits (PDCs) for SHRM-CP® or SHRM-SCP®. This program is valid for one PDC for the SHRM-CP or SHRM-SCP.